SCRANTON, SEPTEMBER 5, 1894.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- For Governor: DANIEL H. HASTINGS, OF CHESTER. For Lieutenant Governor: WALTER LYON, OF ALLEGHENY.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

- For Congress: JOSEPH A. SCRANTON. For Law Judge: ROBERT W. ARCHBALD. For Sheriff: FRANK H. CLEMONS.

THE GENTLEMAN who told us so need not go to the trouble to recall the fact.

The County Ticket.

The renomination of Judge R. W. Archbald by yesterday's convention can be spoken of in no more appropriate manner than as a partial reward of merit.

The nominee for sheriff, Frank H. Clemmons, is one of Scranton's stalwart young business men whose career is typical of the careers that have made Scranton.

In the nomination of Thomas D. Davies for treasurer the convention honored a life-long resident of Hyde Park whose integrity is beyond reproach, and whose fitness for the responsible trust to which he has been nominated cannot be questioned.

The remainder of the ticket is well apportioned geographically and comprises earnest Republicans who have the entire confidence of their party.

IN A WEEK the loyal Republicanism of industrial Lackawanna will have adjusted itself to the conditions of convention victory or defeat, and will be moving in tranquil earnestness toward the goal of glorious victory in November.

DEMOCRACY'S DESPERATION in Lackawanna is clearly evidenced in its frantic eagerness for a Republican bolt.

The Nominee for Congress.

In selecting as their candidate for congress the aspirant named by yesterday's convention the Republicans of Lackawanna county have issued their command; and loyal fellow-partisans have no option but to obey.

We have had some differences with Mr. Scranton in the past; and we dare say we shall have some more in the years to come. There has, however, been in these columns no question either of his ability or his experience.

A SIGNIFICANT feature of the convention was the large and intelligent representation of alert young Republicans.

The League Convention. It is under auspicious circumstances that the Republican League of Pennsylvania assembles today at Harrisburg in its seventh annual convention.

It is under auspicious circumstances that the Republican League of Pennsylvania assembles today at Harrisburg in its seventh annual convention.

CONVENTION ECHOES. Clerk of the Courts John H. Thomas was too ill to attend the convention and therefore had to abandon the idea of making a canvass or taking charge of his forces yesterday.

Henry Mohr, of the Second district of the Nineteenth ward, was one of the largest men in the convention. He was a Fellow shooter, and the label of his Prince Albert coat was ornamented by a red Fellows badge and an equally red bunch of geraniums.

It WILL BE time to talk of the fine points in the political game when the Scranton delegation gets back from Harrisburg. Too much politics in a bunch might leave a dearth of future themes.

THE SLATE-MAKING industry will now be confined to the party of perjury and dishonor.

Impetuous and dashing "Jack" Robinson will today retire from the presidency of the State League leaving behind him a record of earnest party service which few men have equalled.

In presenting as their candidate for his successor, Major Everett Warren, of this city, the young Republicans of Northeastern Pennsylvania believe they have chosen a representative who will fully match the splendid qualifications of President Robinson.

Over all this wreck we can look back to the McKinley bill and measure its effect through the brief months it was allowed to have unfettered operation.

growth of the league as a valuable auxiliary to the Republican organization throughout the commonwealth.

WARD McALLISTER relieves a painful public tension by announcing, in due time, that "without having read a line about the disagreement of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt" he "doesn't believe a word of it."

THERE IS nothing courageous about voluntary surrender.

A Music Festival.

The grand music festival which will begin at Laurel Hill park tomorrow may be considered among the most important of the numerous musical events of the hour.

The parties in charge of the arrangements of the festival at Laurel Hill are well known in musical ventures in this vicinity, and possess experience and ability that guarantee that the sessions will be of interest to all philharmonic people.

RECEIPE FOR THE MODERN NOVEL. "One idea makes one paragraph. Ten paragraphs make one page. Twenty pages make one chapter. Twelve chapters make one volume. Three volumes make one tired."

John T. Watkins' effort in nominating John H. Fellows was one of the most original speeches ever heard in a convention in this county.

W. Gaylord Thomas made a brilliant effort to sway the convention for A. J. Colborn, Jr., but the delegates could not be induced to withdraw their support from the magnetic John R. Jones.

All during the afternoon every seat in the spacious court room was occupied and hundreds had to stand.

During the morning session of the convention Sheriff Fahey and L. H. Burns indulged in an amicable discussion in the rear of the court room on battles of the past.

Attorney John F. Reynolds, of Carbonate, made one of the neatest speeches heard in the convention in nominating John H. Thomas for clerk of the courts.

John R. Jones' hand discoursed music in front of his headquarters yesterday morning up to the time that the convention was called to order.

Those who attended the convention expected to see a brilliant display of parliamentary pyrotechnics were grievously disappointed.

There was an abundance of enthusiasm for Fellows in the convention room, but it was not backed up by votes.

The fine showing made by George M. Watson proved that he has many warm friends in the county.

D. W. Powell and Reese G. Brooks made splendid presiding officers.

WHY TRUST 'EM AGAIN?

Hon. W. D. Owen, of Peru, Ind. Over all this wreck we can look back to the McKinley bill and measure its effect through the brief months it was allowed to have unfettered operation.

the nation's history. They said it would destroy the nation's prosperity; Mr. Cleveland has declared that there was abundant reason to believe that the channel of every industry. Every prophecy of evil was overturned and every promise of prosperity and advancement was realized.

WHY CANADA IS GAY.

Washington Letter in Philadelphia Press. Hay is produced in Pennsylvania to a very large extent. Democrats have reduced the tariff on hay from $4 to $2 a ton. The cost of production in Canada is about 44 per cent. lower than in the United States, owing to the lower price of labor, the lower value of land and the consequent less taxation.

GROVER'S PET FALLACY.

Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed. The president clings, almost to weariness, to his free raw material. What is there in it? Nothing but fantasy and delusion. What defense is there for protection at all, except in the broad doctrine that this country should do its own work and export its own resources, or in the broad doctrine that full wages should be paid its workmen? Are not the men who did go out of the mines as worthy of encouragement as the people who toil in the mills?

LABOR'S TRUE TEST.

Hon. W. D. Owen, of Peru, Ind. The average worker goes back to his bench at a 20 per cent. reduction, and with the day's last twelve months hanging over him, he will not feel like voting the Democratic ticket this fall.

DEAD HUMBUGS.

Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed. Why should we comment on the pop-gun bills? They sleep side by side in the haven of rest. It is bad to be dead, but it must be degrading to be a dead humbug. They cannot even hang on them the little shreds of hypocrisy for which they were intended. Mr. Carlisle has moved even the hillocks on the grave.

Prospective Speed of Bicyclists.

It is this record-breaking speed which up to this hour has arrived when a bicyclist will be able to ride a mile as quickly as Marion Crawford can write a novel.

Self-Stultification.

"Party perfidy and party dishonor" is one of the president's best phrases, but, nevertheless, he permitted it.
